

Internet and Computer Services At Alma d' Arte Charter High School

We at Alma are very proud to have a digital lab as well as three mobile computer labs for use in the classrooms in addition to wireless Internet capability. Please value and be responsible when using the technology equipment we have available at Alma throughout the school year.

The Alma d' Arte Charter High School Handbook states that; "All ALMA'S students, All technology resources must be used in a responsible, efficient, ethical and legal manner and in accordance with Alma d'arte mission, goals, and academic priorities.

In order to access the Alma d'arte computer network, students are provided with a username and password to use as to log into a computer. Students need to keep their passwords private and not use another student's password. All students are required to log out before class is over or when they leave the computer lab.

Internet access is available to everyone at Alma d'arte. The goal in providing these services to everyone is to promote educational excellence by facilitating resource sharing, innovation, and communication. The use of the Internet must be in support of education (such as research) and be consistent with the educational objectives of Alma d'arte. Use of another organizations network or computing resources must comply with the rules appropriate to that network.

The following social Internet sites are blocked from use at Alma d'arte:

- myspace.com
- facebook.com
- twitter.com
- youtube.com (exception for academic use during requested period).

Transmission of any material in violation of any federal or state regulations is prohibited. The Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA) is a federal law enacted by Congress in December 2000 to address concerns about access to offensive content over the Internet on school and library computers. This includes, but is not limited to, copyrighted, threatening, or obscene material.

All uses of the Internet must comply with the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA, 47 U.S.C.254, as amended.)
